

Curriculum Impact

Together, we are Included, Involved and Inspired

inclusivity; close to home; teachers and staff; friendly, science topics, assemblies, lunch, atmosphere; v well managed, children happy to go to school; CofE school; friendly; local, well run; children happy and helpful; I love learning; staff and children; RE teaching, diverse pupil population and inclusivity; welcome and friendly; Maths; very supportive atmosphere; I am always well-informed and feel welcomed; creativity; everything; nice teachers; how small it is; everything; very friendly; friendly staff and kids feel safe; teachers friendly, warm and caring – questions get answered by staff – child is educated – problems get solved; friendly and clean – a great school; its ethos; my child is happy in school and any concerns are dealt with; has met child's needs so far; feels safe and happy and great ethics – I don't believe my child would just become a number here – I feel he would be heard; the atmosphere, inclusiveness, caring culture, teaching standards; caring; good wrap-around care system; very understanding re. child's health; its size and family feel; friendly, well-behaved children, lovely staff, community feel; everything; parents well-informed and children taught well and at appropriate level – friendly; very happy and safe environment; lots of opportunities to see children's work – assembly and show+share; excellent attitude to learning, social skills and inclusivity; well-behaved children, taught Christianity; assembly, field trips, care about learning; sense of community; Christian ethos; Christian ethics; open caring environment; inclusivity, happy atmosphere, broad curriculum; values and staff, children are pushed to maximum of their ability; the one-to-one work you do; standard of teaching/supervision from teacher/TA; good facilities, excellent induction programme, child observation sheets; my children are happy – this is enough for me; the teachers are approachable, the school is very interactive with parents; that it is a Christian place where God is honoured and worshipped; a nice polite school; the children seem happy; the staff and administration; community; everything; teachers want the best for all children; a very good school – child always happy; child is very happy; Christian school but broadens insight to other cultures; the staff especially; friendly staff; the fact that my child has thoroughly enjoyed her 7 years and the progress I have seen her make; everything; everyone at school really good; friendly; everything – never had a problem; its inclusivity; all; my child makes good progress

In a recent survey, the most popular words used by parents to describe our school were indicative of our desire that at All Saints' children are inspired to do their best and explore all the world has to offer in academic, physical, spiritual and social learning, involved in all that they do, involved in their school and wider community and feel included as part of a family where every member is important.

